

AG PRODUCT SPECIALIST

Total Ag Industries is seeking to fill the role of Ag Product Specialist. Candidates should have strong knowledge in planting equipment as well as an understanding of related precision agriculture equipment. Duties will include dealer and customer training, troubleshooting, warranty support, and assembly. Other responsibilities include field demonstrations, prototype testing, trade show representations, and communications with sales and engineering. Plan for long hours during planting season and additional travel for dealer and customer training.

Candidate's experience and skills should include:

- A degree in agriculture or a related field
- Related customer service experience
- Understanding of seeding equipment
- Understanding of computer guidance, field mapping systems, and general agronomy
- Must be able to proficiently use Excel, PowerPoint, Word, Etc.
- Strong communication skills

Contact Pat Muller at 701-636-4524